JERRY'S MOST REQUESTED KEYNOTES:

- Awakening Greatness

A famous coach once said, "Greatness is the domain of a select few." Jerry strongly disagrees! Greatness can be the domain of each of us...but not until we choose to make three simple, profound and life-changing choices... Choices that alter our personal and professional destinies.

Join Jerry for an experience of original songs, stories, multimedia and insight that will challenge, inspire and motivate you to Awaken Greatness in you and your organization!

- Even in the Toughest of Times

For many, these are tough times... perhaps the toughest of times. However, even in the toughest of times, there are still core principals and choices we each make which help us not only survive our difficulties but thrive by working through them.

Join Jerry for an unforgettable experience of original songs, stories, multimedia and insights that will challenge your organization to achieve new levels of success personally and collectively.

- Thankful for the Chance

Giving thanks is where it all begins. Gratitude is the first of three life choices we must navigate to succeed. But gratitude itself is just a start. Join Jerry in the discovery of some additional choices we all must make to realize our true life's purpose and goals....

This is an ideal keynote for any organization, foundation or service oriented association.

It's a one of a kind experience of music, multimedia and insight.... a keynote that inspired Nido Qubein, President of High Point University, Chairman of the Great Harvest Bread Co. and one of the most acclaimed Hall of Fame speakers in America, to write:

"A perfect presentation delivered in an extraordinary way."

- Customized Programs

Jerry will work with you to tailor my programs to your organization's precise needs. Drawing on his wide range of experience, hundreds of compositions and extensive multimedia, keynotes and programs can be custom designed to fit your unique needs. He might even compose a song just for your event!

Jerry Mills

Jerry Mills is an internationally acclaimed keynote speaker, entrepreneur, educator, singer/songwriter and motivational storyteller who travels worldwide sharing what the Chicago Tribune describes as “an intensely personal look at the challenges and choices we all face.”

Following early careers in sales, youth work and emergency medical services, Jerry became an educator. After years of success, he requested and was granted the opportunity to share a very personal and unique concert style presentation with hundreds of his professional peers. Since that day, hundreds of thousands of professionals from all walks of life from Sydney to Melbourne, Liverpool to London, Singapore to Hong Kong, and all across North America have experienced the impact of his keynotes.

Combining his own blend of authenticity, experience and gifted songwriting with his poignant personal story, heart-warming insight, penetrating lyrics and cutting edge visual media, Jerry is often likened to some legendary speakers of our time.

His programs are riveting and electrifying. As one meeting planner describes it, “If you really want to get your message across, then you need someone to involve your eyes, your ears, your heart and your emotions. And his presentations do that. It’s the whole package!”

Acclaimed speaker David Okerlund of The Creative Communications Institute calls Jerry’s newest program, Thankful for the Chance, “the most outstanding presentation I have ever heard.”

He has produced several audio recordings including Urgent Reply, The Real You and his newest release, Lifeline.

His inspirational song and video, Come Join Us, currently serves as an anthem for Rotary International worldwide.

“You have changed my whole outlook on life.”
